President's Message

Elaine Johnson

As we approach summer, vacations and travel loom, beginning the period of predictably lighter attendance at our Guild meetings. Let's focus on making the summer months a time to identify new members and invite them to join us. Lure them with the promise of fascinating workshops, gratifying charity knitting, and lovely raffle prizes, as well as fellowship, inspiration and instruction! If each of us makes a point of bringing a guest, by our November and December yarn swap and pot luck, we should see 30 members again around the tables.

See you in June!

Warmly,

Elaine Johnson
President

June Programs

Sit and chat - knit in place.

June Pattern:

Four Seasons Vine Lace Vest

This timeless lace vest comes in a huge range of bust sizes – from 33 inches to 63 inches – and would be flattering for everyone. It's knit with worsted weight yarn. The lace portion of the pattern is done in charts and in words.

Knit Tip

When yarn isn't spun or plied properly, the knitted garment may "bias" or look more like a parallelogram than a rectangle. A test for yarn that may bias is to cut a length at least a metre long and hold the cut ends together, allowing the yarn loop to hang free. If it twists up, your knitting may bias. As a further test, knit a very large swatch and see if it pulls off square. If it does – and you're still determined to use the yarn – try a swatch twisting your stitches or choose a pattern with knits and purls on both sides.

In Memoriam

Guild member and friend Marie Bonanno passed away yesterday. She worked at Dharma for some years, as many of you remember, and joined the Guild about three years ago. She would have turned 70 in August. Any information will be sent about a memorial service or where to send condolence notes as that information becomes available. We will all miss her.
