

MARIN KNITTERS GUILD NEWSLETTER

APRIL 2009 ISSUE

MINUTES OF MARCH 14TH, 2009 MTG.

Minutes of Marin Knitters' Guild

3-14-09

Attendance

President Elaine called meeting to order and encouraged everyone to get their entries ready for the Marin County Fair.

Paperwork is due May 14. Entry forms may be downloaded from the fair website, and Elaine will bring some as soon as they are out.

Elaine is going to the Kaffe Fassett lecture in the east Bay Apr. 29. Call her if you would like to carpool.

Marcia is in remission and is preparing to undergo a bone marrow transplant. Right now she can't have cards or visitors; Elaine will send her an email with our good wishes.

Programs

We are without a program chair and Elaine welcomes program suggestions.

Suggestions: Knit One Below (Elaine wanted to do this one, but had trouble figuring out the directions); Ocean Scarf that Christine was working on (YO and drops); Scalloped Edging for socks that Joanne was working on. Bring your additional suggestions to the next meeting.

Stitches Notes

Phyllis and Lois – lots of free downloads
Leona – enjoyed her finishing class
Attendance was down somewhat 500 came from

FIVE THINGS

5 Things to keep in your knitting bag:

1. A crochet hook for picking up dropped stitches
2. A yarn needle
3. A measuring tape
4. A photocopy of your pattern
5. A fair bit of chocolate or hard liquor, dependent on the project.

I will recognize that being prepared will make me a better knitter.

Sacramento via Ravelry. Christine – took Crocheted Button Band class and Steeking. Both well done.
CJ- long lines at entry unless you paid online in advance

Elaine noticed some fabulous buys on yarn and luxury items. She is the proud owner of hand-blown glass knitting needles.
Mini workshops fostered an atmosphere of support.

Blackwater Abbey Buttons were good.
Sandra got recognized by her sweater by an old MKG member from the '90's. (The woman didn't remember Sandra but remembered the

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

Since I am stepping down after the election at our next meeting, this is my last "President's Message" to you. I have enjoyed serving as your president, and look forward to continued vital growth of the Marin Knitters' Guild. We all must continue to act as ambassadors for knitting and for the Guild, inviting those we think would enjoy and contribute to our meetings. We've had a great year for acquiring yarn, for improvements at the Marin Fair for recognition of knitting, and for sharing techniques and strategies.

For the April meeting, bring a scarf-appropriate swatch knit on straight needles in DK or sport-weight yarn so you can participate in a workshop on the "Ocean Wave" pattern from Ravalry.com. And as always, bring any yarn you want to swap, and/or any magazines or books you want to distribute. See you April 11!
