need inspiration check out Ravelry, this site is an excellent source for inspiration also the library has several of her books for project ideas.

Melissa request for yarn and needles for east bay teacher to help instruct low income girls on the art of knitting if you have stash to gift please bring to the January meeting.

Christine is looking for local talent to conduct for guild members, local talent is preferred. Question presented to Phyllis, would she be willing to conduct a finishing workshop.

Arlene wants to re-address payment for those who teach at either our meeting or a workshop. Board meeting on January 9 at 9:00 will include discussion on payment to members who conduct workshops.

Check out new internet site, Planet Purl.com
